

Czech Judicial Academy seat in Kroměříž, centre in Prague

The Judicial Academy (JA) was established in 2002 by the Act No. 6/2002 Coll. as the central institution of the justice sector for training of judges, state prosecutors and other target groups. Since it took over the Judicial school in 2005, the Judicial Academy is a unique state body in the Czech Republic providing training to all target groups in the Czech judiciary. Its seat is in Kroměříž.

The Judicial Academy has got training and accommodation facilities in Kroměříž and training facilities in Prague and 7 other cities. JA organizes initial and continuous training for the following target groups:

- judges
- prosecutors
- trainees
- management of courts and prosecution offices
- middle professional staff of courts and prosecution offices
- other experts in the judiciary

Training is focused primarily on domestic law, EU law, legal skills and social sciences. It is offered in form of lectures, seminars, workshops, short-term courses, moots, mock trials, etc.

JA has many bilateral contacts in and outside Europe. Since 2004 it has been an active member of the European Judicial Training Network (EJTN). JA also has an experience as a coordinator and a partner of national and European projects.

Detailed information about all JA training events and activities is available on the JA website <http://www.jacz.cz/> and in the ASJA on-line registration system on <http://asja.jacz.cz>.
